

Sharon Weiss

Pastel Paintings for Life

"Strawberries on Blue"

"Maine Foliage"

About the Artist

Educated at UCLA, Sharon Weiss brings a California perspective to her artwork. With pastel as her medium of choice, she focuses on food portraits and landscapes from her travels to some of the world's most beautiful sights. She is a Member of Excellence of the Southeastern Pastel Society and has participated in many of their juried shows. Prior to locating to Atlanta, she lived in Michigan where she was associated with the Birmingham-Bloomfield Art Association Gallery. Currently, she exhibits locally, accepts commissions, and teaches pastel and colored pencil workshops at the Spruill Education Center.

"Trout Creek"

Recent Exhibits

- ArtWalk at Lenox Square "Art of the Edible" (2004)
- Swan Coach Gallery miniature show (2002)
- Southeastern Pastel Society International shows
- Southeastern Pastel Society Members shows
- Spruill Art Gallery "Small but Gorgeous" show (2002), "Looks Good on Paper" (2003)
- "Artistic Affair" show benefiting the Spruill Art Center in Dunwoody (2001, 2004)
- Quinlan Art Center Gala (2001, 2004)
- Spruill Gallery Holiday Shows (2000 to 2003)
- Brenau University "Chickens, Etc." show (1999)

Selected Images

"Talking Tomatoes"

"Purple Pansies"

Contact Information

Dunwoody, Georgia

e-mail: sharon@sharonweissart.com